

LEBAUDY HEIRESS ASKS ANNULMENT OF HER MARRIAGE

Is American and Never Wanted French Husband,
She Declares.

PARIS, May 3.—A new chapter in the Lebaudy case was opened by the filing with the Paris tribunal of an official application for annulment of the marriage of Jacqueline Lebaudy and Roger Sudreau. Roger is son of Henri Sudreau, also known as Harris, the French detective who is accused by Mme. Lebaudy, widow of the "Emperor of the Sahara," of trying to get possession of her fortune.

Mme. Lebaudy and Jacqueline are still under the care of a physician, following a recent effort to abduct the sixteen-year-old bride, who asserts she had only a "white marriage."

They hope to obtain an early annulment of the marriage, or a decree of divorce that will leave Jacqueline free to return to the United States with her mother this summer. The official papers include doctors' certificates that Jacqueline's marriage was in name only. Jacqueline said:

"I certainly never wanted to have him as a husband. I do not like France or Frenchmen, for, after all, I am just a little American girl and all my friends are across the Atlantic."

INSPECTOR'LL GET YOU IF YOU DON'T CLEAN UP

Copeland Will Be Aided by Police and Other Departments.

Health Commissioner Copeland has arranged for an inspection by the Police, Street Cleaning, Tenement House and Health Departments of every premises in the city immediately following the close of the "Clean Up Week" campaign. Every cellar, yard or other storage place found in an untidy condition will subject the owner to a penalty.

While the response to the facilities offered for the removal of surplus rubbish has been satisfactory, Dr. Copeland feels that the people generally do not realize the seriousness of the situation which the clean up campaign is designed to remedy.

"With the danger of fire and the danger of tubercular plague," he said today, "the city of New York is determined that every reasonable precaution shall be taken to protect our citizens. It is a dreadful comment on our community to think that there were 7,000 basement fires here last year."

WOMAN LEAPS OUT 4TH STORY WINDOW; DIES IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. Stevens Said Before She Died She Didn't Know
Why She Jumped.

Mrs. Grace Stevens, forty-five, was found in the rear courtyard of No. 145 East 35th Street, where she has an apartment on the fourth floor, at 4 A. M. today. Policeman Henry Solomon said she told him she jumped from her bedroom window, but she "did not know why she jumped." She died in Bellevue Hospital at 5 A. M.

She is the wife of William N. Stevens, a prominent construction engineer before he became an invalid two years ago. The couple have lived in the fashionable apartment house for five years. Recently Mr. Stevens had a relapse and a trained nurse is constantly with him. Mrs. Stevens had been nervous and ill recently, and had not fully recovered from the death of her mother five years ago.

George F. Maykopf, Superintendent of the building, who lives in the basement, was awakened at 4 A. M. by his wife, who said she heard a noise in the rear courtyard. He went out with a flashlight and found the body of a woman, clad in a silk nightgown. Running to East 35th Street station, only a short distance away, he notified the Lieutenant, who sent Policeman Solomon.

It was some time before Mrs. Stevens was identified. Because of the nature of her injuries she could not be moved by the policeman. She

FOREST FIRES SWEEP CONNECTICUT TOWNS

Thousands of Acres Burning
Throughout the State.

ONECO, Conn., May 3.—Forest fires continue in all directions. Some were under control, but broke out again. Some of the most destructive in Eastern Connecticut are one-eighth miles long in Northwestern Canterbury, 2,000 acres in Columbia, hundreds upon hundreds of acres in Franklin and Colchester, 2,000 acres in Hebron and others in Scotland, Voluntown, Northern Plainfield, Griswold, Lisbon, Bozrah, Eastford and Thompson. Hardly a Connecticut town has escaped.

HELD ON SHOOTING CHARGE.

Benjamin Zwyrn, twenty-four years old, of No. 173 Delancey Street, was arrested early today and taken to Police Headquarters on a charge of having shot Charles Palma, of No. 277 27th Street, Brooklyn, April 20. Palma is in Bellevue Hospital. The shooting occurred in front of No. 63 First Street. The police say Zwyrn drove away in a taxicab shortly afterward.

GARMENT WORKERS LIKELY TO UNSEAT MORE COMMUNISTS

Rothman, One of the Leaders,
Is Turned Down by Credentials Committee.

CLEVELAND, May 3.—The Credentials Committee, in its report to the biennial convention of the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union today, is expected to report against seating a majority of the so-called Communist delegates. The convention yesterday voted, 126 to 67, to unseat Samuel Rothman, one of the leaders of the group, and the first to come up for consideration. The vote in favor of Rothman was made up of about 45 out-and-out Communists together with the ballots of those who opposed unseating any delegate chosen by a local.

Rothman had accused the international officers, it was reported, of "selling out the members like slaves" in negotiating the memorandum with employers last year. The International is preparing for a strike next month in the event, as now seems probable, that the employers refuse to consent to a continuation of the present agreement which expires June 3.
